

HAMMOND'S BIGGEST XMAS GIFT

THE NEW AUBRY THEATRE

North Hohman Street, Near The South Shore Station

OPEN SATURDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 20th,

Big Feature Program For the Christening of
This Beautiful Home of the Movies

Best Equipment--Finest Pictures--Real Music and High Class Entertainers

Three Shows Nightly--Matinee Saturday, Sunday and on Holidays

Admission 5c

Saturday, Sunday and Holidays 10c

BANQUET? WELL WE GUESS IT WILL BE SOME FEED

Whose all right?
COSTA CUNACOFF.
Who is he anyway?
BOSS OF THE SIXTH.

Very well, pass the ham, let joy be unconfined.

All this is prophetic of the aldermen's banquet at the Hotel Mee, Monday evening. Costa Cunacoff's Silver Star Campaign Band will appear in the ofing in the fifty-seven varieties of the "Star Spangled Banner," and although that is the only selection the Cunacoff musical order plays, it is enough to give variety. They never render it the same twice.

Not Like a First Ward Ball.

For the benefit of those who are getting the aldermen's banquet confused with the First ward ball or the mardi gras, it is stated right here that it is no such thing. It will be highly respectable, stately so, for like the lead-

COPYRIGHTED

You hear so many wise people say: "My back has nothing to do with my trouble." But do you ever notice how they stand or move? Their back is never straight and when they bend or turn they move their backs as little as possible. Think it over and then come up and ask WHY.
It will cost you nothing and may lead a way to happier life.

B. KRCELIC, D. C.

The only CHIROPRACTOR from Fountain Head in Lake County.

11TH AND BROADWAY.

GARY INDIANA

Ward Silver Cornet Band of Desparadoes
That ish all."

LOWELL

William Taylor has disposed of his theater to Eberhart Bixenman of Crown Point. In the deal Mr. Taylor takes the Shelby tile works that Mr. Bixenman recently traded for, in which Byron Chipman got a farm near Crown Point. The properties will change hands January 1, 1914.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Cleaver was largely attended yesterday. A number of relatives and friends from Shelby and Schneider were in attendance.

Farmers are taking advantage of this fine weather in various ways. The corn husking being over, some of the farmers have commenced their spring plowing, others are building fences and cleaning up their farms generally.

J. W. McGowan, formerly on the signals in Lowell, but now of Chicago, spent Wednesday and Thursday with friends in Lowell.

Mrs. James Pinkerton, Mrs. Claude Rumsey and Mrs. Tripp of Shelby, were in Lowell yesterday.

Charles Palmer transacted business in East Chicago yesterday.

Otto Braun and Ed Metcalf transacted business in Chicago yesterday.

The various rooms of the Lowell public schools had Christmas exercises this afternoon. Some of the rooms also had Christmas trees.

The Misses Marie Childress, Mary Strickland and Hazel Bable were Hammond visitors yesterday.

Lynnan Zea of Bensenville, is in Lowell selling his famous liniment.

Mrs. Ed Ebert was in Chicago yesterday. Her aunt, Mrs. Nellie Jenkins, accompanied her home for a short visit.

HOBART.

The public schools here closed today for a two weeks' Christmas vacation.

A daughter was born Wednesday to Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Goodwin.

A number of ladies of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. E. Walker on Tuesday, and founded a society known as the King's Daughters.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. L. Pierce; vice president, Mrs. C. Humes; secretary, Mrs. S. Storey; treasurer, Mrs. E. Walker.

The teachers of the public schools tendered L. E. Barnes a farewell surprise party at his home last evening.

he newly elected school board which will have charge of the schools after January 1, and their wives, were guests of honor.

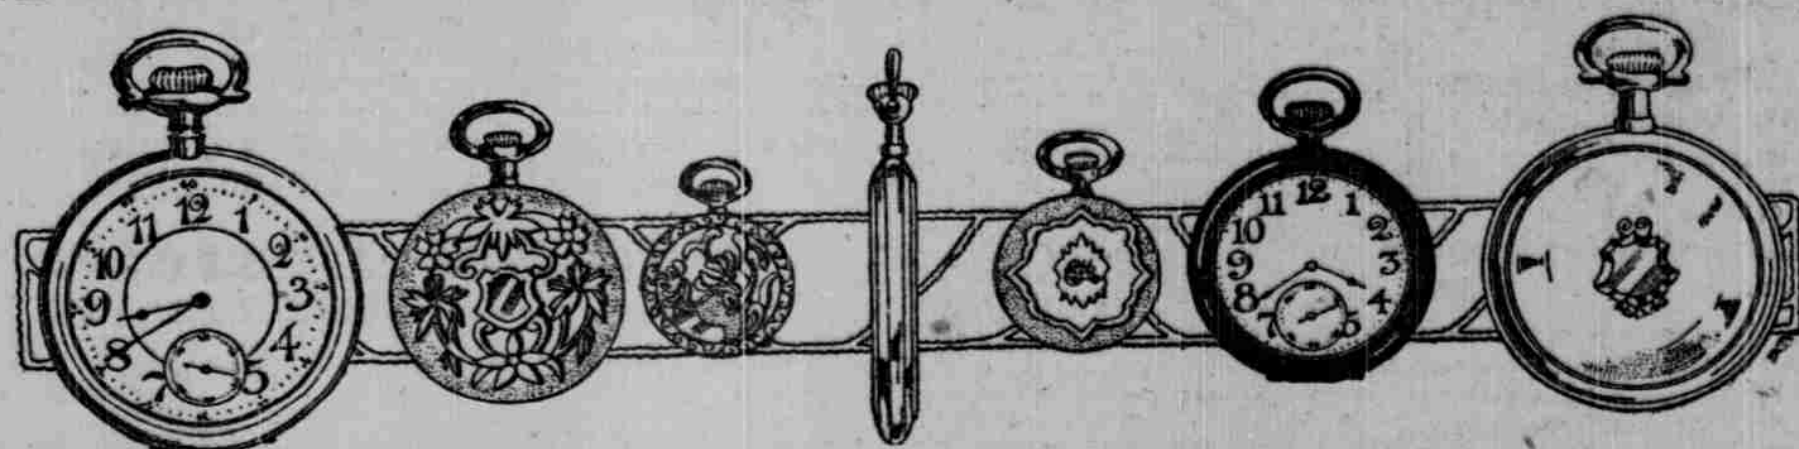

A large number attended the entertainment given by the fifth and sixth grades at the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening.

Miss Edith Chase was a Gary visitor last evening.

Smoke Melle Canadian Club mixture. For pipe or cigarette, best that test and skill can produce.—Adv.

ADVERTISING PAYS, IF IT'S IN THE TIMES.

CHRISTMAS WATCHES

The prices of these watches are cut so fine that they will surprise you. Every variety of watch that every variety of person is likely to need at prices never attempted in Hammond. Look around, but don't buy until you have seen McGARRY'S stock of watches. Remember, I buy direct from the factory and take advantage of cash discounts--and sell only for cash that is why I can undersell the others. All goods engraved without extra charge, for the benefit of out of town customers we will engrave while you wait.

John E. McGarry

Lake County's Largest Jeweler

599 S. Hohman St.

Hammond, Ind.

Artistic Commercial Printing--Times Office